we do not war upon the Mexican nation, or her people," said Senator Fall, "that it is not our purpose to acquire territory and an invitation to the masses of the Mexican people to cooperate with us, we should immediately direct the use of the land and naval forces of this second to the land and naval forces of this government for the pro-tection of our citizens and other for-eigners in Mexico, and lend their as-sistance to the restoration of order and maintenance of peace in that unhappy country

He Quotes McKinley.

He Quotes McKinley.

"I might cite authority after authority, and pile precedent upon precedent as justification under international law for such action, but I will will year from the message of the marryred McKinley with only the suggestion that we insert the name Moxico in Henroft that of Cula or Spain" (crotting at Kinley, in such; "It is not to be forgotten that during the last few months the relations of the United States have virtually been one of friendly intervention in mary ways, each act of itself on clusive, but all tending to the exertlent of a potential influence toward an internal colors and influence toward an internal colors and influence toward an internal colors.

usive, but all tending to the exertion a potential influence toward an usuality pacific result, just and honor-de to all interests concurred. The irit of all one acts hitherto has been a carriest, unseifish desire for peace and prosperity in Cuba, untarnished by a concept the containing and Spain and senator Fall appealed for light on the Mexican situation and referred to Senate resolution asking for infor-tation, while the tresident micro-newer on the group.

H. M. WHITE,

Removal Sale!

Just a few days more for you to supply your needs at a small cost.

We carry everything in the House Furnishing line.

N. KLEIN & SON, Inc.

3 E. Broad Street.

8:30 A. M. to 8 P. M. Dr. T. M. Hawkins and Associate Sun rises 6.31 Morning 8119 Evening 6.36

Our Shoe Department is just as complete as if selling shoes was our only

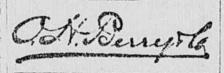

Latitude and longitude

We allow plenty of latitude ar, according to the large distates of thought because comfort is one all precedents where neighboring our great object.

we show.

The Hanan-world famous. The Berry-famous with their wearers. Shoes for boys, too.

Weather

Forecast: Virginia and North Cara-ian-Intr and Warmer Tuesday; Wed-acsday Intr.

Special Local Data for Yesterday. temperature up to 8

M. temperature de la comperature denoy in temperature denoy in temperature since ren 1 de de la comperature del comperature de la comperat

Local Observation S.P. M. Vesterday,

ONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

MINIATURE ALMANAC.

Epidemic of Flames Causes Loss Mounting Into Millions.

OKLAHOMA TOWN HIT HARD

Waco, Buffalo, Terre Haute and Lagrange Among Other Sufferers.

Klefer, Okla. March 9 -Thirty-two must be studied in piloting your feet into a safe harbor. buildings and approximately 50,000 barels of oil, the property of the Texas Company, were destroyed by fire here to-day. The loss is estimated at

We allow plenty of latitude for the toes and have the shoes a trifle longer than first thought because comfort is sacrifices of life by increasing the toes of life by increasing the constitution of every shoes a triangle of the longer than first thought because comfort is sacrifices of life by increasing the beyond their bern justifiable or rational grounds.

We allow plenty of latitude for the free originated in a row of small buildings, spread rapidly and finited the contents of three tanks. Twenty-three business houses were among the buildings destroyed. Fanned by a high wind, the fire, the origin of which has not been determined, soon was beyond control of the local fire fighting forces and was checked only when all of the frame buildings in its path had been destroyed.

Waco Has $500,000 Blaze.

Waco, Has $500,000 Blaze.

Waco, Tex. March 9-Froperty valued at $500,000 was destroyed today in a fire which swept the plant of the Experters' and Traders' Warehouse and Compress Company in East Waco. The loss includes the $100.000 plant, $,000 bales of cotton in morage and on wharfs, eight box cars of the Missourl, Kansas and Texas traitend, and adjoining outhouses of have the our government has been have been shartly and stand up for the rights of American situation to the eights of American situation to the extremely difficult embarrassing and threatening statution.

An in darkness.

Continued from first page.)

In difficult embarrassing and threatening situation to the extremely difficult embarrassing and threatening statution.

An intervention means war because no cannot have been discovered who will or can co-operate with the United States in establishing page.

If would mean a long task, he are every ofter resource was exhausted.

Jewelers Make Assignment.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Special for The Times-Dispatch. It is passing the first page in days to Fred Higher transfer, for the benefit of carolities approximately stocks in as lets passing under the deel of trust.

The Western and a serience of the long to day and the river near Hidals for Texas, and the river near Hidals of the fitting to fact the report to day, and added, "I said the report to day and added, "I said the report to day, and

The Finest Resort Hotel In the World

Has been built at Sunset Mountain, Asheville, N. C. Absolutely Fireproof, Open All the Year At and lasticiated line walls five tret thick, of grante bandlers. We get from slopes of highest mount in east of thockes; milk and cream supplied exclusivity by Bilmore Dairles on calate of thoog. W. Vanderbill, the grant fines in the south adom the district. No exputies. Always cool enough for lasticity is success. is ankers.
Write to races and literature.

CROVE PARK INN Sunser Mountain, Asheville, N. C.

and Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges night clerk, and Norman Roe, e

Adams and Broad.

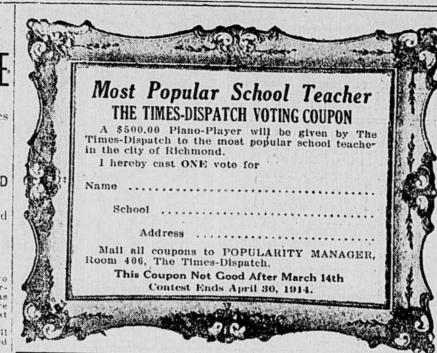

Direct Action

RYAN-SMITH THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET Misses' Outer Apparel.

Get Your Baby when they said scores of them undoubtedly were indebted for their esternation of the second doubtedly were indebted for the second One of our 1914 Carriages. 25 patterns to select from.

Rothert & Co.

PRIZE

The $500.00 piano-player offered as a prize by The Times-Dispatch to the most popular school teacher in the city of Richmond is on exhibition in the windows of The Crafts Piano Company, Inc., Second and Broad Streets.

selfish motives actuated him in urging an auxilessive policy were unfounded. All property interests he had held in Mexico with the exception of 'a few cods and ends,' he said, he disposed of in 1806. Sense of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Italicoad, and adioliting outhouses of the Company. Losses were said to be nearly covered by insurance. A big brick warehouse, containing more than 1,000 bales of cetten, was closed and withstood intense sheat. So rapidly did the flames spread that employes in the business office were forced to five their desks, losing personal belongings. Sparks from a locomotive was given as the cause of the fire.

when the waste the waste the property of the p

when a sfx-inch gas main is believed to have burst in the club kitchen on the third floor, and the flames, following the explosion, burst straight through the building to the roof. Henry C. Henley and Chief Swingley agreed on the gas explosion theory as most probable.

"I did not go across the river at all," said the report to-day, and added, "I ington Avenue and Fourth Street began falling at noon, and Chief Swingley or dered his men back and the search for the bodies delayed.

the bodies delayed.

Mayor Kiel spent the day at the smoking ruins assisting in the direction of the rescue work. Street Commissioner Taibert visited the Mayor there to inquire when the streets might be opened for traffic. The Mayor referred them closed that ordered them closed until the work of rescue is finished.

Woman Gives Alarm. A woman standing in the club lobby as the first to dis over the fire and give the alarm. She was waiting while her escort, Ludwig Eisemann, of New O leans, was in a booth telephon-ing for a taxicab. Looking out of the front winnow she saw a reflection of the flames in the windows of the J. Kennard & Sons Sons' Carpet Company

Rushing to the counter, she notified make sweet tempered housewives.

JURGENS

teen years old, the night telephone operator. Both began awakening the guests. Roe, from his switchboard, rang the telephones in the ninety-eight range the telephones in the ninety-eight elephone in the ninety-eight elephone in the switchboard, range the telephones in the switchboard range the telephone in the night telephone operate. any guests who might be there. Then he ran back to the first floor, where he tried to save the club register. He declared it was knocked from his hands by a man who had entered the lobby on the run Resinger said the register probably was lost, hen Resinger rushed into the elegator and ascended to the lifth floor, where he awakened Manager McGill And Mrs. McGill are well and Mrs. McGill are well are to lease the building until she had visited thirty-eight rooms. She was clad in her night clothes, and called to Have It. the guests that the building was in flames, and to escape as quickly as possible. MILLITERY—Women's and disses' Guter Apparel.

Dosstole. Club members, after escaping from the building, stated a purse would be made up to reward the heroism of the night clerk and telephone operator, to have the building.

a salesman, leaped ten feet from his window across a space six stories deep, and landed safely, except for

EDWARD H. BUTLER DEAD

Buffalo, N. Y. March 5.—Edward H. Butter, proprietor of the Buffalo Evening News, died to-night. Death followed an operation for mastolditis. Mr. Butter was editor and proprietor of the Buffalo Evening News and proprietor of the Buffalo Evening News and the Buffalo Evening News and Interest in Masonic ceremonles were held at the grave, but one of the largest floral tributes was that ordered by the bodge of which he was a member. The fraternity was represented at the obsculure No Masonic ceremonles were local tributes was that ordered by the bodge of which he was a member. The fraternity was represented at the obsculure No Masonic ceremonles were local tributes was that ordered by the bodge of which he was a member. The fraternity was represented at the obsculure No Masonic ceremonles were local tributes was that ordered by the bodge of which he was a member. The fraternity was represented at the obsculure No Masonic ceremonles were local tributes was that ordered by the bodge of which he was a member. The bodge of which he was a member of task.

Scholarship Holders Named.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March 9—The special committee, consisting of Dean R. H. Dabnamed tecommend two graduates of the University of Virginia as beneficiaries of the interior of the late Dr. Hennett W. Green, who left in oday nominated John O. Benty, of Ruck.

Gire ersvile, Va., and Douglas Ramsay Semmes, ose- of Covington, Va. as the first holders of the scholarships, which are valued at about the scholarships, which are valued at about swill ters of arts of the university, and will purished sue their studies in France and Germany.

Appeal of the scholarships which are valued at about with him at Montana Hall, has been find the men named are massished sue their studies in France and Germany.

Appeal of the scholarships which are valued at about with him at Montana Hall, has been find him and bas been under the care of a physical and had not left his bed chamber more than a few moments at a time for the past two months.

For Lent

 Clam
 Broth, can.
 20e

 Shad
 Roe, can.
 20c

 Fish
 Flakes, can.
 15e

Virginia Crab Meat, can 35e Japanese Crab Meat, can ...25e-45e Sliced Smoked Salmon, Ib. 40e Smoked White Fish, Ib. 40e Finnan Haddin, Ib. 17e Shipping orders solicited. Freight prepald on orders $5 and over.

Rermann

504-503 East Broad Street Telephone Monroe 101-106

ASK YOUR DOCTOR

Children's School $1

FUNERAL AWAIIS

Party of Friends Comes From Montana to Pay Respects to Late William G. Conrad.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., March 9.-The fun-eral of William G. Conrad, the Montana multi-millionaire banker, railroad builder, ranchman and a prominent figure in Democratic national politics, whose death occurred on Friday morning at his 900-acre country place, Montana Hall, near White Post, Clarke County, Virginia, after a long lilness of arterio aclerosis, which was to have of arterio aclerosis, which was to have been held on Sunday, was postponed until to-day, when it became known that a party of business associates and friends had started from Helena and Great Falls, Mont., on a fast train to attend the obsequies. A train schedule were so arranged as to give their train clear tracks all the way, and they reached White Post, the nearest railroad station, in ample time to pay their tributes of respect to their late friend and associate in many large business undertakings. The Montana people were joined in Washinston by eany people from that State now live many people from that State now liv-ing at the national capital, and others prominent in official and business life of Washington also journeyed to Montana Hall to attend the services.

The burial service was conducted in he great library of the Conrad home and two sisters, Mrs. Harry G. Burks and Miss Mattie Watts, of Bedford City. Mont., assisted by Rev. William Dickerson Smith, rector of historic old hist Church, of Winchester.

At the conclusion of the services at the house, the remains were brought to Winchester and interred in the fam-ily lot in Mount Hebron Cemetery be-side the grave of his wife, the late Mrs. Frances Bowen Conrad, w occurred in February, 1912. whose death

A. Benjami Anghan.
Benjami Verghin died at his
e. 'Chilton,' Hanover County, on day sfirmen, after a long illt. He is survived by his wife, who Miss Willie Ann Mayhard, and daughters, Misses Isabel and Berta

Mrs. Martha D. Allen, wife of J. T. Allen, of 21e0 East Broad died last night shortly after 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Rebecca H. L. Goodwig. Mrs. Rebecca H. L. Goodwin.

[Special to The Times-D.spatch.]
Charlottesville, Va. March S.—Mrs.
Rebecca H. L. Goodwin, aged eighty, wife of the late Julius S. Goodwin, a former merchant of this city, expired suddenly last evening while seated at the supper table at the home of Mrs.
E. L. Cave. She was before marriage
Miss Rebecca Bohannon, of Mathews County, Va. She was twice married, her first husband being Henry Lancaster, of Louisa, by whom she had four children. Coming to Albemarle, she taught school at Free Union for sevcrai years, and in 1899 married Julius Goodwin, whose death occurred last May.

Mrs. Frederick S. Longfield.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March S.—Mrs.
Frederick S. Longfield, aged sixtynine, of Keswick, this county, died yeaterday at the Marthe Jefferson Sanatorium, after a brief tilness. She was before marriage Miss Mary Kite, and was born in Amherst County. Thirty years ago the family moved to Cismont, and five years later Miss Mary's marriage to Mr. Longfield occurred. Besides her husband, Mrs. Longfield is survived by one brother, Isaac Kite, of Amherst.

Mrs. Clara Isabelle Sullenger.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg. Va., March 2.—Mrs.
Clara Isabelle Sullenger, wife of George W. Sullenger, formerly of this city, died at her home in Corry, Pa., a few days ago. She is survived by her husband, three brothers, her mother and one sister. Her death was sudden.

Mrs. Mary Drusilla Allen.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., March 9 — Mrs. Mary Drusilla Allen, cighty-two years old, died last night at her home, 202 North Columbus Street. She was a Miss Skidmore, and had been ill since Monday with pneumonia. Two sons, Ernest L. and William Lewis Allen, survive. Her funeval will take place at 4:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary T. Lukens.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va. March 9 — Mrs. Mary
T Lukens, widow of Courtland Lukins, died vesterday at her home, Braddock Heights, Alexandria County. Several children survive her. Her funeral will take place at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon from her late home.

Charles Watts.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Bedford City, Va., March 9.—Charles Watts died very suddenly at 1 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Watts, on College Street. He is survived by two small sons, his wife preceding him in death about two years ago; his mother brulses, upon the roof of the St. Louis brulses, upon the roof of the St. Louis athlete, and has made a specialty of the standing broad jump.

ALBERT STEIN

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets, Druggists refund money if it falls to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.—Adv.

The Music Question

is happily solved in the home that owns a

GENUINE INNER-PLAYER Piano Ask us to prove it for you-

Branch W. Markham.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., March 9.—Branch W.
Markham, aged twenty-four years, died on Saturday afternoon at his home at Staploton, after a long illness.

James A. Sprouse.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Charlottesville. Va. March 3.—James A. Sprouse, aged thirty years, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the home of his patents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell 1. Strouse, near this city, after an illness of over two years. On June 22, 1911, he was injured in a street car collision in Baltimore, and the following summer contracted tuberculosis. Besides his parents, he leaves three brothers and three sisters. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock from the Chapel of the Good Shepherd.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch |
Emporia, Va., March 9,-J. T. Humphreys,
Lispecial to The Times-Dispatch |
Emporia, Va., March 9,-J. T. Humphreys died at an early hour this morning at Sussex Courthouse. He was diffy-five years of age, and had been sick for only a few days. Mr. Humphreys was a native of Madison County, where he was at one time deputy clark, having also held a similar position in Cu. pefer County. He had resided at Sussex Courthouse for seven years, during which time he had been engaged in the Fractice of law. Mr. Hurnhreys haver married. His only immediate family is a sister residing in Madison Courty.

Thomas Parley.

THIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

town, and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs, and not because we like to see people suffer-we don't. Our duly is to render the best service we can, and when some one is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their par-ticular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls," as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick none at all, and you should

Mrs. Frederick S. Longfield.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March 8.—Mrs Frederick S. Longfield, aged sixtynine, of Keswick, this county, died yesterday at the Marthy Jefferson Sanatorium, after a brief tilness. She was be fore marriage Miss Mary Kite, and was born in Amberst County. Thirty years ago the family moved to Cismont, and
five years later Miss Mary's marriage
to Mr. Longfield occurred. Besides her husband, Mrs. Longfield is survived by one brother, Isaac Kite, of Amherst.

John N. Tanner.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Crewe, Va., March 9.—John N. Tanner, aged sixty-eight, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Schanback, on Saturday afternoon, and was burled in the Crewe Cemetery on Sunday afternoon. He was born and reared in Appomattox County, and was a Confederate veteran. He leaves five children—Elmer M. Tanner, R. Holmes Tanner, of Petersburg, and J. E. Tanner, of Lynchburg, Mrs. John S. Schanher, of Crewe, and Mrs. Benjamin F.
Tanner, of Nottoway.

Mrs. Clara Isabelle Sullenger.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Mrs. Clara Isabelle Sullenger.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

(Advertisement.)

Compound Interest

Is the foundation upon which many fortunes have been built. You can acquire at least a com-petency if you build upon the same foundation.

One dollar a week deposited in our savings department amounts to over a thousand dollars in ifteen years. You can readily estimate what at compound interest in a gen-eration. Why not make a start?

We Pay 3% Compound Interest. Broadway

National Bank